Glynn Vivian Artist in Residence: Joan Jones

1 November 2014 – 28 February 2015

The Glynn Vivian Art Gallery 'Artist in Residence' programme is an opportunity for the community to interact, exchange and engage with an artist and to offer artists an opportunity for reflection, research and collaboration. Our artist for November 2014 – February 2015 is Joan Jones.

Joan has been working as an independent DIY cultural practitioner for over a decade. With roots based in the London queer punk scene (performing solo as Truly Kaput and in bands such as the Battys and Gender Fascist), Joan now works in a variety of media, including song, live performance and zine distribution.

Joan's work is about turning embodied queer experience - often painful – into narratives or what they like to think of as "folk stories." As a genderqueer person and artist, Joan is currently exploring gender neutral pronouns such as 'their' and 'them' in reference to themselves. Joan will present an open studio and performance event as part of the residency.
