The DBS was established under Part V of the Police Act 1997 and was launched in March 2002.

The DBS enables organisations in the public, private and voluntary sectors to make safer recruitment decisions by identifying candidates who may be unsuitable for certain work, especially that involve children or vulnerable adults.

The DBS can issue 5 levels of Disclosure Certificates, depending on the position applied for, namely Standard, Enhanced, Enhanced with ISA check (children), Enhanced with ISA check (adults) and Enhanced with ISA check (children and adults)

Prospective applicants should be aware that before any offer of appointment is confirmed the successful candidate will be required to complete an online application form for the appropriate level of disclosure. Proof of the successful candidate's identity will also be required in the form of the following: Passport, Driving Licence, Birth Certificate and Utility Bills.

The Authority actively promotes equality of opportunity for all existing employees and prospective applicants. Candidates are selected on the basis of skill, qualifications and experience, and their match against the Person Specification.
