Gareth Hugh Davies
Olion

Room 1
12 April - 6 July 2008 - extended by popular demand

An exhibition of recent paintings by Carmarthenshire based Gareth Hugh Davies. This new series of paintings is entitled Olion, Welsh for trace, track or mark.

These enigmatic works often depict an empty rural landscape devoid of people. However human presence is suggested by the traces they have left behind – the tracks in the earth or the lights in the distance.
